Anti Bryan Doctors Look Over the Gray and Johnson Patients and Gravely Shake Their Heads—Charley Murphy Thinks He'll Steer Clear of the Morgue.

By SAMUEL G. BLYTHE.

DENVER, July 7.—There is not such air in the air in Denver any more, and when it comes to keeping a cool head, presidential boom alive the task becomes enormous. They pumped oxygen into the gray room and the Johnson boom all day and all night, in the hope of getting them into shape for inspection by such militant gentlemen of other parties who may have slants against Bryan, complicated with intense desires to be on the hand wagon when the procession starts.

Lench and Benish and Marcel and all the rest of the Gray and Johnson trained nurses worked valiantly, and with much trepidation contented to display their booms, and to assure that the curtains should be drawn, that no unnecessary noise should be made and that positive no conversation should be held in the room. The plan was to have such visitors as were interested call around, take a fleeting glance at the patients and then go out and decide whether they are alive or dead. The most eminent visitor was Charles P. Murphy, of New York, who by his friends to be a skillful diplomat. Accompanied by a staff of attendants, Mr. Murphy asked to see the patients. He felt their pulses, observed the oxygen treatment, inquired whether the right hour existed in his sublimated apartments at the Sherry Hotel for study and reflection.

SAMUEL G. BLYTHE.

Mr. Murphy was calm and dignified in his manner. He merely said to the nurses of the weeklies that unless they could produce before him an emotional vision during the day two reasonably robust booms, having a combined circulation of some three hundred cubic feet, he would not be interested in their case at all. He was free to admit that he did not discover much vitality, and denied it but felt that he would join hands with old Dr. Bryan unless he could see a great change for the better by tomorrow.

New York on the First Chariot

New York, he said, did not intend to go into a morgue with any candidate at the present time. Indeed, it was rather from Mr. Murphy's conversation that New York distinctly refused to do anything but get reserved seats in the first chariot in the morning, leaving the hearse for those who care to ride in vehicles of that character.

Artificial respiration and all other devices for keeping pale and blue booms alive were resorted to during the night, but there was not much evidence of reviving weakness. Pressed bulletins were issued, giving skillfully prepared statements of temperature and the like, but they failed to convince Mr. Murphy.

He has already been crowned a comfortable place by old Dr. Bryan's friends. The men who are nursing the Gray and Johnson booms must show him something better, and must stand off at Lincoln on his way home and swear allegiance.

New York is willing to defeat Bryan, but New York is not going into any movement to help defeat him or almost defeat him. Wherefore New York will go for Bryan.

There has been the day to get all for the platform. Various parties have New York, and many are coming to get to the platform. They are coming to get to the platform. They are coming to get to the platform.

Old-Time Politicians Are Dying Hard.

Strictly the exact question, probably the most important of the day, is whether the people, ought to be discussed in the same manner and on the same terms as the corporations.

Having adopted a monetary platform at Chicago, the Republican convention proceeded to elect the White House ticket for President. To secure the acquiescence of the delegates, the chief executive of the party was elected to the office of President.

Guffey Bryan Fight Centred Upon Regulation Contest

CHRONOLOGY OF BRYAN-GUFFEY CONTROVERSY.

July 4.—Hostilities began. Bryan refuted Guffey out of the party, saying before the Pennsylvania delegation: "Mr. Guffey, your present national committee, deliberately and wilfully conspired to defeat what he knew to be the expressed will of the delegates of Pennsylvania."

July 5.—Guffey, in reply, declared: "A simple recital of the plain facts should be sufficient to enable any fair mind to determine with certainty, at a time when harmony is the chief requisite of party success, who is the more self-confessed falsifier, who the hypocrite, who the real and most arrogant liar, even known in the Democratic party, who I, who I regret to add, the Guffey delegates from Pennsylvania."

July 6.—Delegates in an uproar. Denver all excitement. Friends of both line up for battle.

Same day (later). Guffey re-elected member of the Democratic National Committee. Bryan loses the first fight.

July 7.—National Committee takes up contest against seating of the Guffey delegates from Pennsylvania.

Result.

DENVER, July 7.—Denver, in a state of feverish excitement, awaits to-day the report of the national committee in the matter of the Pennsylvania delegation.

The controversy between these two delegates has been the center of the storm since Saturday. Bryan started it, in an address before the Pennsylvania delegation, when he declared: "A simple recital of the plain facts should be sufficient to enable any fair mind to determine with certainty, at a time when harmony is the chief requisite of party success, who is the more self-confessed falsifier, who the hypocrite, who the real and most arrogant liar, even known in the Democratic party, who I, who I regret to add, the Guffey delegates from Pennsylvania."

STATE BOARD INVESTIGATES TROLLEY CRASH

General Manager of Hoosick Valley Line Admits No Fault Lights Were on Car.

COLLISION WAS IN DARK

The State Board of Railroad Commissioners today conducted an investigation of the accident on the Berkshire Street Railway system on June 20 when two cars running from North Adams to Williamstown crashed together because of the trolley of the leading car leaving the track and leaving that car in darkness.

Witnesses of the crash were the first witnesses. He said he did not know whether the car was carrying headlights, as it was the duty of the conductor to see after that. At the time when the accident occurred, the car was running in the dark and the trolley was on the ground. The conductor told him to come and throw the rope. He went back to do so, and saw the other car coming down the hill. He did not have time to take the trolley off the track before he was struck by the trolley of the other car. He did not think he was hurt.

Superintendent William J. Hart of the Hoosick Valley Line, who was on duty at the time, said that the car was running in the dark and the trolley was on the ground. He said that the car was running in the dark and the trolley was on the ground.

General Manager Lovewell Wheeler admitted a knowledge that the rules were violated in running in the dark, but he said he had no fault to find with the car. He said that the car was running in the dark and the trolley was on the ground.

Mr. Vary said that the car was running in the dark and the trolley was on the ground. He said that the car was running in the dark and the trolley was on the ground.

Have You Ever Seen Girl Broncho Busters? No? Well; Here's Your Chance; They're the Real Thing

Pawnee Bill's Wild West Show is the biggest thing in Wonderland. For that matter, it's one of the biggest things around Boston.

In fact, as a Wild West performance it's about the biggest thing outside of Denver.

They have real horses that buck, real cowboys, and, best of all, four genuine Wild Western girl broncho busters.

You will notice the picture of these girls.

WASHINGTON, July 7.—The General Western, commanding the Philippine Division, is about to order construction of a battery of six 12-inch guns at the mouth of Manila Bay.

Next Sunday's page of tickets to Summer amusement resorts will include a ticket entitling the holder to admission to Wonderland and another ticket entitling the holder, upon payment of ten cents, to see Pawnee Bill's Wild West Show.

In other words, by buying next Sunday's AMERICAN and cutting out the coupons you can see thirty-five cents' worth of Wild West for the bargain counter price of only ten cents. Cheaper than going to Denver, isn't it?

And almost as amusing.

YOUR HOME will be healthier when you keep bottled Schlitz. The barley is food—the hops are a tonic. And the drinking of liquids flushes the system of waste.

Every doctor knows that most people drink too little. On this account, their systems become clogged with waste. There lies the main good of watering places. They induce the drinking of water.

That is one reason why the drinking of beer is good for you. It leads you to drink more liquid than you would drink without it. And that liquid is both a food and a tonic.

The sturdiest peoples of the earth drink the most of it. But be sure that the beer is aged, so it will not cause biliousness. And be sure it is pure.

Schlitz beer is all healthfulness.

Schlitz

The Beer That Made Milwaukee Famous

Ask for the Brewery Bottling. Common beer is sometimes substituted for Schlitz. To avoid being imposed upon, see that the cork or crown is branded Schlitz.

JUMPS TO ESCAPE FIRE, WOMAN FATALLY HURT

TRAPPED BY FLAMES AS SHE SOUGHT TO SAVE VALUABLES STORED IN ATTIC.

Josephine Thompson, twenty-six, of 14 Elmwood street, Wakefield, is dying from smoke received when she jumped from the top of her house to escape being burned to death by the fire which destroyed the house about 11 o'clock today.

Miss Thompson discovered flames coming through the ceiling of her room, and started her life to save some of her valuable possessions from the fire.

As she started to save the attic she found that the flames had again taken her by surprise, and she was unable to escape. She was killed by the fire.

Remarkable Advertising Offer
Attracts Fair Shoppers of Greater Boston.

BIG STOCK GIVEN AWAY

Every woman in Boston and all the immediate suburbs is interested in the advertisement which Edition works of Dr. Charles F. Fish Food is to be given away free of cost to women readers of the BOSTON RUNDAY AMERICAN next Sunday, July 12. At numerous distributing stations, to be designated later, the company is going to give a pound box of Fish Food and a 25-cent cake of Dr. Charles F. Fish Food to every person who purchases a box of the Charles F. Fish Food and presents it to the nearest distributing station.

This offer is one of the most liberal advertising offers on record. Boston women are interested in it as it offers them a good thing when they are in it. Besides that, it is a good thing for the advertiser, as it is a good thing for the advertiser.

Rem. Mammoth Warehouse.

To cope with the big demand, the Dr. Charles F. Fish Food Company has rented a warehouse in the city, and has shipped enough of these preparations to fill it up. Every barrel of this mammoth stock is to be given away. Seven to nine cases will go for nothing to the thousands who will be able to take advantage of the opportunity.

Incidentally, the Dr. Charles F. Fish Food Company is giving away a pound box of "The Art of Massage," which is the proper treatment for the face, neck, arms and hands. There is a kind of beauty in this little book, and it is of interest to be interested in being beautiful. A point to be remembered is that it is a good thing for the advertiser, as it is a good thing for the advertiser.

Now Ready for Fish Food.

The company has received the reception of a fresh food. Many women have been in the habit of applying cod liver oil, which is a good thing for the advertiser, as it is a good thing for the advertiser.

Three hundred anniversary from Boston, Massachusetts and Rhode Island, with their families and friends, will attend the annual convention of the Bostonian Association, which will be held at Lake Park, Wrentham, to-morrow.

DEATH CHARGE WILSON CASE

Arrest of Printer by Philadelphia Police Said to Be Ruse to Trap Real Slayer.

TO PROBE WIFE'S DEATH

PHILADELPHIA, July 7.—Fred Giles, Jr., at a hearing before Magistrate Reilly today was held in prison and remanded to the commonwealth to be kept in custody until the Philadelphia police can investigate the death of his wife. It was an arrest on a charge that Giles was connected with the Wilson case, and he was not held in connection with the Wilson case.

That the arrest of Giles was more of a ruse, and that the arrest of the real slayer, was the intention of the Philadelphia police, is the opinion of many who are interested in the case. The man to be arrested is said to be a resident of Philadelphia, and he is said to be a resident of Philadelphia.

Warning to Expressman.

Buckman, upon his arrival, produced a statement letter, which the police then took to the station, and then the police then took to the station, and then the police then took to the station.
